SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University baseball squad used a five-run fourth inning to pick up a 6-4 non-conference victory over visiting Albany State on Tuesday afternoon at Pirate Field.

The Pirates (12-14) halted a four-game losing streak with the win over the Rams (7-24). Albany State saw its season-best four-game winning streak come to a close with the loss. Armstrong State returns to action on Friday, hosting North Georgia in an 11:00 a.m. Peach Belt Conference doubleheader at Pirate Field.

Armstrong State took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the second inning without the benefit of a hit as Zack Goble and Spencer Harvey drew walks to start the inning. A balk moved both runners up one base and Cody Sherlin delivered a sacrifice fly to right field to drive in Goble.

Albany State tied things up in the third inning on a sacrifice fly by Riese McDaniel.

The Rams then scored three runs in the fourth inning to take a 4-1 lead. With the bases loaded and one out, a ground ball to second base saw Sherlin collide with the baserunner, dislodging the ball and allowing Cody Fleck to score. A wild pitch and an error plated two more runs in the inning for Albany State.

The Pirates then sent 10 men to the plate in the bottom of the fourth to take a 6-4 lead. An RBI double by Will Austin, a passed ball and a sacrifice fly by Chandler Corley tied the game up at 4-4. Ryan Patterson then tripled and Jerad Curry and JT Phillips followed with back-to-back RBI doubles to give the Pirates the two-run lead.

Junior Caleb Woods then shut down the Rams bats, hurling 5 1/3 innings of three-hit shutout ball, striking out four to notch the win in relief and move to 2-0.

Gary Cannon took the loss for the Rams, giving up three hits and two runs in 1/3 inning of work.

Phillips went 3-for-5 with an RBI to pace the Pirates offensively in the contest. Curry, Patterson, Stetson Smith and Austin each had two hits as well.

McDaniel and Kelvin Wimbush had two hits apiece for the Rams.
